FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Tax evasion in violation of Title 26 U.S.C. § 7201 as charged in Count 3 of the Indictment.

JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby placed on PROBATION for a term of THREE (3) YEARS.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $933,492 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Internal Revenue Service IRS-RACS ATTN: Mail Stop 6261, Restitution 333 W. Pershing Ave. Kansas City, MO 64108	$933,492

The victim's recovery is limited to the amount of its loss as determined by the restitution amount ordered in this Judgment and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full payment on the restitution amount ordered herein.

Restitution shall be paid in full by the end of the term of probation. By the twelfth month of each year of probation, Defendant shall pay at least $219,497.33 until the restitution ordered is paid in full. Any amounts already paid shall be credited against the restitution ordered.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Because the defendant has not established that he is unable to pay a fine, it is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $25,000. The fine shall be paid in full no later than 90 days after the date of sentencing. Any amount of the fine outstanding after that shall bear interest as provided by law.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, FALLAH AL FALLAH, is hereby placed on PROBATION on Count 3 of the Indictment for a term of THREE (3) YEARS under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05;
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of federal, state, or local law or ordinance;
3. During the period of probation, the defendant shall pay the special assessment, fine, and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. During the period of probation and beginning within 30 days after entry of judgment, the defendant shall participate for a period of SIX (6) MONTHS in a home detention program and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. Location monitoring shall not be required;
5. The defendant shall perform 250 hours of community service, as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to his outstanding federal tax obligation for the years 2008, 2009, and 2010;
7. The defendant shall cooperate with the Internal Revenue Service in the determination of his income tax liabilities for the calendar years 2008, 2009, and 2010. The defendant shall file, no later than three months after entry of judgment, accurate Income Tax Returns for the calendar years 2008, 2009, and 2010, subject to Defendant's admissions in the plea agreement, correctly reporting income and deductions and will, if requested to do so by the Internal Revenue Service, provide the Internal Revenue Service with information regarding the years covered by the returns. The defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
8. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction, and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of probation. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
9. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
10. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation;
11. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns and a signed release authorizing their disclosure, and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income, expenses, and liabilities of the defendant; and
12. All of the defendant's income, "monetary gains," or other pecuniary proceeds shall be deposited into one personal checking account or one business checking account, which shall be used for payment of all personal expenses or business expenses, respectively. Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request. The defendant shall maintain no foreign bank accounts in his own name or in the name of any business entity that he controls.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

The Court dismisses all remaining counts of the underlying indictment as to this defendant.

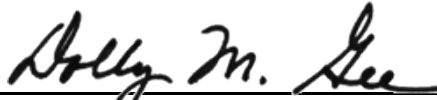

The bond is exonerated as to this defendant.

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

☒ The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence (pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all non-federal victims must be paid before the United States is paid):
 - Non-federal victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to non-federal victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS FOR PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall provide to the Probation Officer: (1) a signed release authorizing credit report inquiries; (2) federal and state income tax returns or a signed release authorizing their disclosure; and (3) an accurate financial statement, with supporting documentation as to all assets, income and expenses of the defendant. In addition, the defendant shall not apply for any loan or open any line of credit without prior approval of the Probation Officer.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.

These conditions are in addition to any other conditions imposed by this judgment.
